

Meet The Teacher

P.S. 162Q –Special Education Teacher Support Services (SETSS)

Ms. Allison Solano & Ms. Danielle Morgan

Introduction

Good evening and welcome to SETSS. Throughout the day, the SETSS room is a place full of activity and a “home” for all of your children. It serves as a center for learning and a library of resources and support material. It is a room in which students can ask questions, seek assistance, develop strategies and acquire and implement skills that will enable them to become independent learners.

What Does SETSS Provide?

- A variety of teaching methods
- An emphasis on the belief that high self-esteem is achieved through hard work and genuine effort
- Communication with students, teachers, and parents
- Goal Setting
- Support of content area subjects, especially ELA and Math

SETSS Will Provide Practice With:

- Graphic Organizers
- “Thinking Maps”
- Flash Cards
- Note-taking skills
- Outlining and mapping
- Test-taking and study strategies

Conclusion:

Each year is an important one for you and your child. We hope that our program will be a positive experience for your child this year. Through activities and support lessons, your child will be encouraged to become a better learner. He/she will be exposed to a variety of techniques that build upon reading, writing, and listening skills. In addition, organization and time management will be emphasized to help with students' growth and maturity.
